MY HEALTHY CHURCH®

Equipping Spirit-Empowered People

What Makes A HEALTHY CHURCH?

WELCOME TO THE MY HEALTHY CHURCH STORE

This catalog is packed with resources to help you and your church become fully Spirit-empowered. Each resource has been selected with one purpose in mind: We want to see a Christ-centered, thriving, life-giving, healthy church in every community.

OUTCOMES-BASED DISCIPLESHIP

Each resource in this catalog has been filtered through a specific philosophy of ministry. We call it outcomes-based discipleship, and it's all based on Acts 2. It's an intentional process that focuses on each individual—for every age and stage—and places him or her on the pathway of growth to know Jesus and to make Him known.

You'll notice five different icons being used throughout this catalog. These five icons represent this pathway to growth: Worship, Connect, Grow, Serve, and Go.

A HEALTHY CHURCH IS ONE THAT...

- Pursues and obeys God passionately (Worship)
- Engages and maintains loving relationships (Connect)
- Develops and mobilizes its people (Grow)
- Acts with clear direction and outward focus (Serve)
- Reproduces and multiplies God's mission in other places (Go)

AUTHOR | ALTON GARRISON

Alton Garrison serves as the assistant general superintendent of the Assemblies of God, U.S. He also serves as the director of the Church Transformation Initiative, which helps churches renew their spiritual vitality and reach their full kingdom potential. He is the author of Hope in America's Crisis, The Acts 2 Church, and The 360° Disciple.

New for  A Spirit-Empowered Church

An Acts 2 Ministry Model

ALTON GARRISON

The biblical principles for spiritual multiplication are evident in the pages of Scripture ... If we'll only notice them. In A Spirit-Empowered Church, Garrison points us to the heart of dynamic church growth: creating Spirit-empowered disciples who are involved in five activities—connecting, growing, serving, going, and worshipping. Combining a strong biblical approach with inspirational insights and personal stories, Garrison shares the Acts 2 church model that can renew the spiritual vitality of your congregation.

A Spirit-Empowered Life

Discover the World-Changing Journey God Has Designed for You

MIKE CLARENSAU

How do you pursue the fullness of God? If you want God's absolute best for you, then A Spirit-Empowered Life will show you how God can live within us and through us so others see more of Him and less of us.

Using both real life and biblical examples, Mike Clarensau helps us learn how the Holy Spirit can maximize our potential day by day, hour by hour. Each brief chapter is filled with practical lessons on how to step into this dimension of spiritual power.

The Spirit-empowered don't live mundane lives ... they change the world!

The Power of Home

Taking Charge of Your Faith and Your Family

TED CUNNINGHAM

Even if you've never met Ted Cunningham, he's looking out for you and your family. In The Power of Home, he'll encourage you to hit pause and ask:

1. What is the current state of our family?
2. What does it mean for our family to be redeemed?
3. How can we take personal responsibility for our faith and our family?

If you want a healthy family now and in the future, Cunningham shows you how every family member can contribute to the spiritual growth of your home.

MY HEALTHY CHURCH MARRIAGE PHILOSOPHY

“Let marriage be held in honor among all...” Hebrews 13:4, ESV

Our desire is for every man and woman as a couple to establish a solid foundation for their marriage, become more like Jesus, and live a Spirit-empowered life and marriage. Whether a pastor, a part-time church staff member, or a volunteer, our mission is to mobilize the church with a simple, effective marriage ministry strategy to build healthy marriages:

- Prepare – Before the couples say, “I do,” we want to prepare them for marriage from the biblical perspective to establish a firm foundation. Research conclusively shows that couples who participate in pre-marriage training are 31% less likely to get divorced and experience a higher degree of fulfillment.
- Strengthen – We believe God created marriage to be enjoyable and lasting. To strengthen their relationship and keep marriages strong and vibrant after the honeymoon, intentional discipleship through classes, small groups, and mentoring is vital.
- Save – For couples who have fallen during difficult times, we want to be equipped to save their marriage by offering hope, healing, and restoration in Christ.

One More Try

What to Do When Your Marriage Is Falling Apart

GARY CHAPMAN

When doors slam and angry words fly, when things just aren't working out, and even when your spouse has destroyed your trust, there is hope. If you feel like your marriage is near the breaking point—even if you have already split up—Gary Chapman will show you how you can give your marriage one more try.

Separation does not necessarily mean divorce is imminent. Matter of fact, it's possible that separation may even lead to a restored, enriched, growing marriage.

The Likeable Christian

A Journey Toward the Radical Love Jesus Taught Us to Live

JUSTIN LATHROP

It's tempting to get caught up in how to vote, which church to attend, how to do Communion. While none of these concerns are unimportant, they're not nearly as important as the greatest command we have ever been given: Love God and love one another. That's likeability.

Likeability isn't easy, but in The Likeable Christian Justin Lathrop discusses ways to glorify God in our everyday lives by living more like Christ, actually doing what He did, and loving people the way He loved them.

Jesus in the Unannounced Moments of Life

HEATH ADAMSON

The Bush Always Burns introduces a Jesus all of us can seek, find, and trust in moments that are bright and moments that are dark. Heath Adamson takes us back in time to meet an undesirable character from his youth: him at age seventeen.

If you find yourself struggling to know your heavenly Father the way Heath did, The Bush Always Burns offers a life-giving reminder that Jesus is (and always has been) waiting for us to turn and see that the bush always burns and the ground is always sacred.

A.D. 30

A Novel

TED DEKKER

The outcast daughter of a powerful Bedouin sheikh in Arabia, Maviah is called on to protect the very people who rejected her by securing an unlikely alliance with King Herod of the Jews.

But Maviah's path leads her to another man. An enigmatic teacher who speaks of a way in this life which offers greater power than any kingdom. Though following him may present even greater danger, his may be the only way for Maviah to save her people—and herself.

How Everyday People Become Extraordinary Leaders

RICH AND ROBYN WILKERSON

When you pair selflessness with compassion, you've got a transformational force. Rich Wilkerson and his wife, Robyn, propose that anyone can be a servant leader—ordinary people doing extraordinary things for God.

Age, background, and education don't matter as long as people set aside their differences, form new bonds with others who choose to meet needs, and take action. Here, you'll find concrete reasons to both lead and serve.

How Jesus Changes Everything

GEORGE O. WOOD

In these 261 inspiring devotions, Dr. Wood examines the book of Mark while providing a Scripture passage and prayer for each day.

 CONNECT
 GROW

Wood is an engaging storyteller who shares an upbeat mini-story or vignette every day. For example, one day's reading introduces the first grocery store owner to offer grocery carts for customers. It took time for people to accept this helpful new idea, since they had always carried everything themselves. Dr. Wood explains that our Savior does something similar for us. We tend to carry more burdens than necessary, so the Lord reaches out and says, "Let Me do it for you."

Desperate for Jesus

Overcome the Obstacles to Find True Life

JOHN F. HANNAH

Some of us run to Jesus when things go wrong and move away from Him when life is smooth, but there's a better way to live.

John Hannah helps you grow more mature in your relationship with Jesus by revealing his testimony of crying out for, and finding, Jesus. As he pulls you into his own story, Hannah also studies heroes of the Bible. Desperate for Jesus helps believers identify and conquer six obstacles:

- Difficult seasons in life
- Betrayal
- Anger
- Spiritual immaturity
- Family
- The flesh

The more we crave Jesus, the more He will transform us and those around us. It's time to live desperate!

AUTHOR | JOHN F. HANNAH

John F. Hannah is senior pastor at New Life Covenant Church Southeast. He has hosted the #1-rated gospel radio program, "The John Hannah Morning Show," for more than thirteen years. He is the author of What to Do While You're Waiting. Learn more about him at newlifeoakwood.org.

In the Gap Small Group Kit

Are you—or someone you care about—facing serious difficulties in your marriage, with your kids, at work, or in any situation that seems hopeless? These “gaps” are places of real threats, vulnerability, and even danger. But they are not as hopeless as they appear. Watch the hearts of your small group participants transform as these DVD sessions remind them of the grace and greatness of God. He will give them the courage to step into the gaps around them.

These DVD sessions feature testimonies as well as biblical examples of six courageous people who recognized “gap” situations and trusted God to make a difference: Nehemiah, Esther, Noah, David, Barnabas, and Gideon. Six sessions, 7–10 minutes in length.

The helpful study guide offers challenging discussion questions, Bible passages, daily devotions, and helps for leaders.

Rhythms of Grace

Discovering God's Tempo for Your Life

KERRI WEEMS

Learn to be led by God rather than driven by the world.

Life tends to take on a pace of its own which can drive us toward burnout and fatigue. We can easily become driven by care and worry rather than led by the Holy Spirit. Author Kerri Weems had let the pace and rhythm of her life get out of control. In this book, she shares her journey as God taught her to walk in time with Him. God wants us to enjoy the race and cross the line with our heads held high. Getting to that moment is all about learning the rhythms of grace and pacing ourselves for the long run.

365 Days of Living and Dying with Jesus

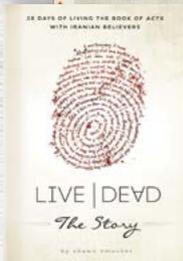

DICK BROGDEN

Every Christian is called to live the crucified life (Galatians 2:20). In that sense we are all dying daily—dying is how Christians live. We die to ourselves, our wills, our comforts, and our reputations for the glory of Jesus. The wonder of applying this biblical principle to everyday life is that it brings life and joy in the process.

This daily devotional celebrates a lifestyle based on the example of Jesus, who showed us how to live dead, not with dread but with great gladness. Written in a deeply personal style that provides a fresh perspective on the disciplines of the Christian life, each one of the 365 devotions is based on a suggested Bible reading. This devotional will put you on the path to a life of deeper faith and stronger dedication to Christ.

Courageous Compassion

Confronting Social Injustice God's Way

BETH GRANT

Through the eyes of Jesus, you will see those to whom He was drawn as potential men and women of God on a healing, life-changing journey. A challenge to our pale definition of compassion, the message of this book is bold, necessarily courageous, and disruptively life-transforming. If you let it, your worldview and life will be changed forever.

Combining sound biblical insights with amazing stories of the sexually enslaved who have found freedom, Dr. Beth Grant demonstrates that spiritual darkness is more than a concept. Yet spiritual Light is also a liberating, loving, healing, transforming reality.

I Blew It!

The biggest mistakes I've made in kids' ministry ... and how you can avoid them

BRIAN DOLLAR

Brian Dollar is one of the most respected kids' pastors in the country, but few people know the path he's taken to learn his most important lessons. In this book, he opens his heart and his life to share his biggest failures.

Some of the principles are about ministry philosophy, strategy, and communication, but the most important ones—the lessons that will make you laugh and melt your heart—are about the deeper qualities of fear and hope, pride and humility.

As you read this book, trust God to change you from the inside out.

DAVID HERTWECK

Invite youth leaders into a game-changing conversation: How can we create and sustain a ministry to youth that is fueled by an effective, contagious relationship with God and others?

Celebrating some wins while unintentionally missing the big picture may cause students to believe the wrong things count. David Hertweck challenges ministry leaders to ask:

- Are youth becoming fluent in the gospel?
- Are youth Spirit-dependent?
- Do youth have biblical community?

Believe Youth

Small Group Kit

Energize your youth group to believe God will move in amazing ways, even in seemingly impossible situations, through inspiring testimonies from Spirit-filled millennials. In four sessions, Dr. George O. Wood adds biblical examples of women who chose to overcome their struggles in spite of challenges—

1. Sarah laughed as she doubted God's promise.
2. Naomi plodded and persevered through her loss.
3. Hannah wept in brokenness as she longed for a child.
4. Mary submitted and willingly obeyed God's supernatural plan for her life.

As your students see what God has done in others' lives, they'll be inspired to believe God for greater things in their life, too.

Sticky Faith: Youth Worker Edition

Practical Ideas to Nurture Long-Term Faith in Teenagers

DR. KARA E. POWELL, BRAD M. GRIFFIN, AND DR. CHERYL A. CRAWFORD

Every Christian parent wants their child to develop a faith that will stand the test of time. But that kind of faith in high school students is becoming more rare with every passing year. That's why Fuller Youth Institute (FYI) developed Sticky Faith, a guide for Christian parents and leaders who are looking to nurture their children's spiritual growth.

This resource will help provide them with a compelling rationale and a powerful strategy for actively encouraging spiritual growth in their children no matter their age.

Building a Youth Ministry That Builds Disciples

A Small Book About a Big Idea

DUFFY ROBBINS

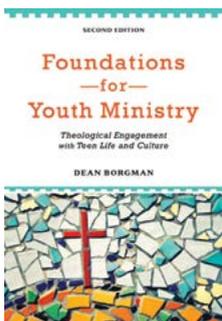

While most youth pastors are being regularly evaluated for what they're doing right now in the youth group, the reality is that the most important thing they are doing won't actually be evident until much later. That's because the biggest challenge for any youth ministry is helping teens embrace a whole-hearted devotion to God that lasts far beyond their years in the youth room.

Unfortunately, much of youth ministry seems to be designed on the model of setting teenagers up for a "date" with God—a delightful evening that involves music, laughter, food, and light conversation. But what Scripture calls us to is not a "one-night stand" with God, but a lifelong love of God that endures.

In this easy and concise guide, youth ministry educator and veteran Duffy Robbins offers you a blueprint for building in teenagers a lasting faith.

The Bush Always Burns

Jesus in the Unannounced Moments of Life

HEATH ADAMSON

The Bush Always Burns introduces a Jesus all of us can seek, find, and trust in moments that are bright and moments that are dark. Heath Adamson takes us back in time to meet an undesirable character from his youth: him at age seventeen.

Adamson grew up knowing a little bit about the occult, too much about drugs, and almost nothing about God. If you find yourself struggling to know your heavenly Father the way Heath did, The Bush Always Burns offers strength and solace for today.

It is a life-giving reminder that Jesus is (and always has been) waiting for us to turn and see that the bush always burns and the ground is always sacred. His power is constantly available to us if we want it.

Honest Thoughts on Finding God and Becoming Myself

ELYSE MURPHY

Growing up a church kid is tough, and being a Christian in this world is not for the faint of heart. In a spiritual tug-of-war, there is a battle between living for God and finding acceptance.

Is it possible to live a set-apart life, and have a seat at the cool kids' table? In a humorous and let's-just-be-honest approach, Elyse Murphy goes on record about struggling through her teen and young adult years just trying to find her place. In Confessions of a Church Kid, Murphy reminds us that Jesus still loves us, awkward mishaps and all.

How Everyday People Become Extraordinary Leaders

When you pair selflessness with compassion, you've got a transformational force. Rich Wilkerson and his wife, Robyn, propose that anyone can be a servant leader—ordinary people doing extraordinary things for God.

Age, background, and education don't matter as long as people set aside their differences, form new bonds with others who choose to meet needs and take action. Here, you'll find concrete reasons to both lead and serve your congregation.

Approaching Scripture with comedy, stats, and storytelling, a Minnesota minister explores some counterintuitive twists behind happiness and promotion. Diving deeper than others would dare, this gutsy writer wrestles with theological issues many leaders would avoid on Sunday.

He asks, "What if your prayers could reveal your promotability or odds of happiness?" and "Did you know some people who survive traumatic events report higher levels of happiness?" Haas' bold goal is to increase the time and energy you and the people you know are investing in prayer, thinking, and even blogging.

Why Some Churches Are Blessed

Putting Faith and Obedience into Action

DAN BETZER

How do you grow a church? In Why Some Churches Are Blessed, you'll learn the one biblical principle author Dan Betzer says is the secret: Give and it will be given to you.

GROW WORSHIP

Dan first learned that God blesses a giving church while pastoring a church with just ninety members. With God's direction, he encouraged the people to set a mission giving goal for the year that was totally beyond their reach. God honored their faith and they raised double the church budget! As a result, the gospel spread and the church grew.

Through generously supporting missions, phenomenal growth occurred in Betzer's church, and it can happen in yours too.

Ministerial Ethics

A Guide for Spirit-Filled Leaders

T. BURTON PIERCE

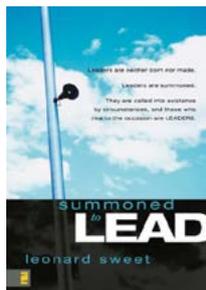

Ethical standards are an essential foundation and safety measure in every church. Requiring your pastors and leaders to read Ministerial Ethics will establish the attitude and reverence regarding ethics, plus help you set specific standards for your church.

Ministerial Ethics examines the moral and ethical responsibilities facing Spirit-led leaders. Pierce calls ministers and laypeople to not only believe in, but also reflect God's love, God's justice, and God's righteousness. He highlights ethical aspects of our relationship with God and others in three areas: home, church, and community.

This thorough explanation covers everything from the biblical basis for ethics, to ethics throughout church history, contemporary moral issues, and ethics in practical ministry such as financial integrity, confidentiality, marriage, and playing favorites in the church.

Four Faces of a Leader

What It Takes to Move Your Church Forward

BOB RHODEN

Are you eager to move your church into a new dimension of growth and maturity? Four Faces of a Leader can utterly transform you as a leader and those you lead. Not with bells and whistles, but with a soft whisper of truth. By emphasizing the leadership priorities Jesus demonstrated in the Gospels, Bob Rhoden shares practical applications for all pastors, whether they serve 1,000 or 100 members.

Like a personal mentor providing intergenerational truths, this book challenges, inspires, informs, and encourages. Based on four leadership “faces” of Shepherd, Servant, Steward, and Seer, this is a solid roadmap of practical insights and uplifting encouragement drawn from Bob’s many years of experience and success both as a pastor and a denominational leader.

The New Believer's Handbook

How do you share the next step after salvation? This booklet lays a firm foundation for new Christians to build their faith. Its easy-to-read style is organized by questions every new Christian wonders: What happened to me? Where do I go from here? What does God expect of me? How can I understand the Bible? How can I pray effectively? How can I know the will of God? What are the two baptisms?

The answers are clear and point to the Bible for more discovery. It's the booklet you want to give every person who comes to salvation through your ministry and it's economical enough to do it!

Also includes suggested daily Bible readings from the book of Mark. Adapted from Now What?, written by Ralph Harris.

The More-with-Less Church
EDDY HALL, RAY BOWMAN, AND J. SKIPP MACHMER

In The More-with-Less Church, the authors propose that church leaders look on these times as opportunities to reconsider ministry practices that may be siphoning time, money, and energy from their churches. Drawn from time- and field-tested strategies, this practical resource will help you avoid costly mistakes and maximize the return on investment in ministries, staffing, facilities, and finances.

Preaching

Maybe It Is Rocket Science

JAMES T. BRADFORD

As a pastor or leader, perhaps there are many areas of ministry to which you have heard this saying applied. However, is preaching God’s Word one of them? Could it be that unfolding the text, developing an outline, and presenting the Bible are much more complex than simple? James Bradford applies his considerable experience in the field of scientific research to answering the tough questions about preaching that many ministers have.

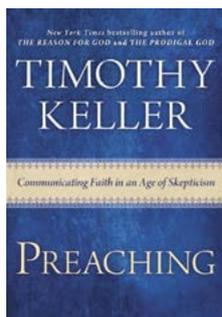

Preaching is a book that will challenge you to strive for excellence in the study of God’s Word, while at the same time equipping you for a deeper level of ministry. Bradford covers topics that are relevant to the life of the leader, such as training, rebuking, time management, and aligning your life with your message. It is a book that shows that there is more to preaching than meets the eye, and that, just maybe, it is rocket science after all.

Influence Music exists to cultivate Spirit-empowered worship leaders who embrace and reflect the presence of God, to curate songs inspired by the prophetic Word of God and, in doing so, create resources to build and sustain a healthy worship culture in our churches across the street and around the world.

SOAR CD

Imagine a gathering of some of the most gifted and passionate songwriters, musicians, and worship leaders on the planet ... on stage at your local church. The congregation stands in joyful expectation, hands raised, voices rising in chorus, boldly proclaiming the joy and freedom found in a powerful encounter with the living God.

This is SOAR, featuring 11 songs cultivated organically in the worship of local churches in pursuit of the presence of God. Produced by John Hartley (Matt Redman, Leigh Nash), SOAR captures the intimacy, excitement, and transformational nature of worship.

Includes the songs:

- Revive—NCC Worship (National Community Church)
- There Is A Kind—Feat. Zach Loomis (Journey Community Church)
- Fill This Place—Red Rocks Worship (Red Rocks Church)
- Faithful God—Feat. Brandon & Jerah Divine (The Church at Chapelhill)
